

Session 5 - Friday, 26 November

10:15-11:15

ASIA: CHANGE, DISRUPTIONS AND RESILIENCE PART 2

Extended Temporariness and Uncertain Permanence: An Analysis of Chinese Working Holiday Makers' "Triple Rootlessness"

Luyi Ye, AU

The persistence of exchange labour in rural Southeast Asia: Change, disruption or resilience?

Alice Beban, MU

Chinese immigrants showed resilience through their housing journey in New Zealand

Zhang Wei, UO

SHIFTS IN POST-INDEPENDENCE INDIAN LITERATURE: MEDIA, DIASPORA, AND PARTITION (PANEL)

Media as interface in Indian literature

Shanti Mathias, VUW

A journey to a place where there is everywhere left to go: History & Home in Diasporic Indian Literature

Cileme Venkateswar, VUW

Broken Bodies, Broken Lives: Sectarian Violence and Women's Bodies in Post-Partition Literature

Janaye Kirtikar, VUW

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND REGIONAL SECURITY

Oscillating Positive and Negative Depictions of New Zealand's Economic-Security Relations with China
Mengdi Zhang, VUW.

A lesson from China': China as an example of deforestation in New Zealand conservation discourse, 1908-1950

Anton Sveding, VUW